

Best Nagpur hotels for a family holiday

Nagpur is a developing city located in the Indian state of Maharashtra and also one of the most visited places in India. It is because of the vibrant landscapes and pleasant climatic conditions, Nagpur is considered as the winter capital of Maharashtra state. It is because of the massive cultivation of Oranges over here and the large scale marketing going on the economy of Nagpur is developing at a rapid rate. The recent development of the place can be attributed to the growing travel sector over here that has been supporting the income level of the place. The growing tourism of the place has been cordially supported by developing Nagpur hotels over here as international travellers look forward to spend long vacations with their loved ones when they come here. Nagpur also boasts of a rich culture that includes people from different cultures living together in peace. Not many know that Nagpur is also regarded as the political centre of India with the main headquarters of RSS political party located within the city.

It is because of the fact that Nagpur is a popular travel hub, the stay options available here also range from high class accommodation options to low budget Nagpur hotels. The high class hotels over here offer all the modern facilities like fully furnished rooms with centralized air-conditioning to the guests, which is why these types of accommodations are preferred mostly by international travellers. On the other hand, people who are looking for economical options with all the standard facilities, the budgeted hotels here are suited to them. Generally budget hotels are preferred by people who are on a tight budget and are looking for a place with a home like comfortable environment. Other than being a popular tourist destination, Nagpur is also a well known educational hub because of several renowned educational institutes located here. Students from different parts of India and even abroad come here to study in top engineering and management colleges.

The economy of Nagpur is an agro based economy as it majorly depends on agriculture as its source of income. Some of the major crops that are cultivated here include sugarcane, jowar, cotton and other spices. Some of the popular sightseeing attractions present here include the Pench National Park, Mammoth stupa, Deeksha bhoomi where Buddhist monks are offered with deeksha on special occasions. People who are planning a trip to Nagpur should plan their journey and stay options in advance.