

Free Patches Scheme at Custom Embroidered Patches

We at custom embroidered patches also offer free patches to our clients. This proposal is intended to all the people who own a website having page ranking of 2 or more on Google and other search engines. We are looking for webmasters who can promote our embroidered patches on their website or webpage through advertisements. This advertisement can be done either by providing the link of our website, services, or banner on their web page.

We wish to increase the popularity of our patches and design along with our quality services. For this we require our links to be promoted on websites that own a relatively high ranking on search engines like Google and Yahoo. The website should also be popular amongst the web users and should posses a high online traffic with good amount of visits everyday. The website should also be highly accessible with good quality designs and outlay that are appealing and interesting enough to keep the users hooked to the website. Its presentation should look real and lively and should directly connect with the audience.

If you are the owner of any such website, then you are offered our best quality embroidered patches as per your demand, for free. All you have to do is to provide the link of our website, wonderpatch.co.uk service, or link to any of our service or banner on your website in an actualizing manner.

If you are interested in our proposal, then drop a mail on our website containing your 'www' based website's address along with your embroidered patch requirements. We would also like to hear suggestions on how you intend to advertise our patches and services on your website.

If you are not aware on how to check the Google page rank then we can assist you in that regard. You can contact us by sending a mail or filling a quote on office@embroidered-patches.co.uk
